

Flutist, Classical Guitarist Concert at Neptune Church

Marjorie Koharski, Neptune flutist and Keith Calmes, classical guitarist from Ocean Grove will perform a duo concert on Sunday February 25 at 3 p.m. at Holy Innocents Catholic Church, Route 33 and West Bangs Avenue in Neptune. A free-will offering will be accepted.

Marjorie Koharski is a retired flutist and piccoloist with the Monmouth Symphony Orchestra, a retired faculty member of the Monmouth Conservatory of Music, a current member of The New York Flute Club, New Jersey Flute Society and the National Flute Association where she has attended their annual conventions and performed in cities throughout the United States. She has also performed in Master Classes with James Galway, Julius Baker and Murray Pantz. She is founder and director of The Festive Flutes, a semi-professional flute choir, who perform light classical music and show tunes throughout New Jersey. She teaches flute in her Neptune studio.

Keith Calmes' performance credits include a debut at Carnegie Recital Hall, concert appearances with the Monmouth Symphony Orchestra and a performance with Carlos Barbosa-Lima.

Mel Bay Publications has published several of his guitar books. Composers Stepan Rak, Maximo Pujjol, Jurg Kindle and Timothy Broege have all recently written works for him. Keith teaches at Wall High School and was presented the Outstanding Teachers

Award from the College of New Jersey. His more recent interests include the 21- string harp guitar which increases the range by two octaves and study and performances with South Indian percussion virtuoso Vinayakram and his Grammy award winning father, Vikku Vinayakram.

The musicians who have been performing together for 12 years, will feature music by Haydu, Faure, Giullani and Debussy. Their program will also include a new piece entitled "Soir D'Ete": by Jean Maurice Mourat, who dedicated it to the musicians.

For more information call 732-922-2273. To learn more about the musicians, please visit their website www.fluteandfriends.com and www.keithcalmes.com

Marjorie Koharski, flutist and Keith Calmes, guitarist..