

Flute, Guitar Concert in Neptune

Marjorie Koharski, Neptune flutist and Keith Calmes, classical guitarist from Ocean Grove, will perform a duo concert on Sunday, February 26 at 3 p.m. at Holy Innocents Catholic School, West Bangs Avenue in Neptune. A free-will offering will be accepted.

Koharski is a retired flutist with the Monmouth Symphony Orchestra, current flutist with the Elysion Winds Quintet, a former faculty member of the Monmouth Conservatory of Music, a member of the New York Flute Association where she has attended their annual conventions and performed in cities throughout the United States. She has performed in Master Classes with James Galway, Julius Baker and Murray Panitz. She is founder and director of The Festive Flutes, a semi-professional flute choir who perform light classical music and show tunes throughout New Jersey. She teaches flute in her Neptune studio.

Keith Calmes has performed as a soloist at New York Public Library at Lincoln Center, Alice Tully Hall, Carnegie Recital Hall and locally with the Monmouth Symphony Orchestra. He has performed solo works of many composers. He is associated with Mel Bay Publications, a member of the Guitar Foundation of America, serves on the board of directors of the NJ American Strings

Marjorie Koharski and Keith Calmes

Association, and writes for the NJ Strings Magazine. The College of New Jersey recently presented him with an Outstanding Educator Award. Dr. Calmes teaches guitar and related subjects at Wall High School.

The musicians will perform music by Vivaldi Paganini, and more. Their program will also include a new piece composed by Dr. Calmes entitled "Satie in India". For more information, call 732-922-2273. To learn more about the musicians, please visit their websites at www.fluteandfriends.com and www.keithcalmes.com