

Flute, Guitar Duo Performing in Concert

Marjorie Koharski, Neptune flutist and Keith Calmes classical guitarist from Ocean Grove will perform in concert on Thurs., July 20 at 7 p.m. at the Colts Neck Public Library.

This will be the final concert in their series of French/Italian music. The concert will include music by Vivaldi, Paganini, Italian Serenades and music by contemporary French composer Jean-Jean Maurice Mourat.

Koharski is a retired member of the Monmouth Symphony Orchestra and the Monmouth Conservatory of Music and is a current member of several flute associations in which she has performed with in cities throughout the United States. She is founder and director of The Festive Flutes and teaches flute in her Neptune studio.

Dr. Calmes has performed as a soloist at Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall and with the Monmouth Symphony Orchestra. Mel Bay Publications has released several of his books and recordings. He is a member of several guitar and string associations and teaches guitar and related subjects at Wall High School.

They will open their new season in September with concerts at Wall Public Library on Saturday, September 16 at 2pm and at Point Pleasant Beach Library on Tuesday, September 26 at 7 pm.

The flute/guitar duo plays for concerts, weddings, receptions, corporate events and dinner entertainment. They will also schedule seasonal programs during the December holidays.

For more information or to schedule a concert call 732-922-2273 or email marjoriekoharski@gmail.com.